GOVERNMENT OF HIMACHAL PRADESH

LABOUR DEPARTMENT

NOTIFICATION

Simla-2, the 6th July, 1972

No. 2-397/69/SI.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 28 of the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 (Central Act 53 of 1961) and all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the Governor of Himachal Pradesh, proposes to make the following rules for the purpose of the said Act and the same are hereby published for the information of the general public and of persons likely to be effected thereby as required by sub-section (1) of the said section and notice is hereby given that the said draft rules will be taken into consideration, after expiry of 30 days from their publication in the Rajpatra.

Objections/suggestions, if any, may be addressed to the Labour Commissioner, Himachal Pradesh, Simla-1. Any objections or suggestions which may be received from any person in respect of these draft rules before the period specified above, will be considered by the Himachal Pradesh Government.

DRAFT RULES

1. Short Title.—These rules may be called the Himachal Pradesh Maternity Benefit Rules, 1972.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires:—

- (a) "Act" Means the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 (Central Act 53 of 1961);
- (b) "Competent Authority" in relation to an establishment shall be the Chief Inspector of Factories, Himachal Pradesh, or any other person authorised by the Government by a notification in this behalf;
- (c) "Form" means a form appended to these rules;
- (d) "Muster roll" means a muster roll maintained under rule 3;
- (e) "Registered Medical Practitioner" means a medical practitioner whose name has been enrolled in a register maintained under any law for the time being in force regulating the registration of practitioners of medicine;
- (f) "Section" means a section of the Act.

Section 20

3. Muster Roll.—(1) The employee of every establishment, including an establishment belonging to Government, in which women are employed shall prepare and maintain a muster roll in Form 'A' and shall enter therein particulars such as the daily attendance of all women workers in the establishment.

(2) All entries in the muster roll shall be made in ink and maintained up-to-date and it shall be available for inspection by the Inspector during working hours.

(3) The employer may enter in the muster roll such other particulars as may be required for any other purpose of the Act.

4. Form of notice under section (4).—The written notice referred to in section 6 shall be in Form 'B'.

5. Proof.—(1) The fact that a woman is pregnant or has been delivered of a child or has undergone miscarriage or is suffering from illness arising out of pregnancy, delivery, premature birth of child or miscarriage shall be proved by the production of a certificate to that effect in Form 'C' from—

- (a) a Medical Officer of a Civil Hospital or of a dispensary set up by the Government; or
- (b) a Registered Medical Practitioner.

(2) The fact that a women has been confined may also be proved by the production of certified extract from a birth register maintained under the provisions of any law for the time being in force or a certificate signed by a registered mid-wife in Form 'D'.

(3) The fact that a women has undergone miscarriage may also be proved by the production of a certificate signed by a registered mid-wife.

(4) The fact of death of a woman or a child may be proved by the production of a certificate to that effect in Form 'E' from any of the authorities referred to in sub-rule (1) or by the production of a certified extract from a death register maintained under the provisions of any law for the time being in force.

6. Payment of maternity and other benefit.—(1) The employer shall make payment of the maternity benefit and any other amount due under the Act to the women concerned, or, in case of her death before receiving such maternity benefit or amount, or, where the employer is liable for maternity benefit under the second proviso to sub-section (3) of section 5, to the person nominated by the woman in her notice in Form 'B' and in case there is no such nominee to her legal representative.

(2) In case of any doubt, the maternity benefit or other amount due to a woman under the Act, shall be paid by the employer to the recipient after necessary enquiries are made by the Competent Authority to ensure that the person to whom the payment is to be made, in his opinion, is entitled to receive it.

(3) Whenever the payment referred to in sub-rule (1) is made, a receipt shall be obtained by the employer in Form 'F' from the persons to whom the payment is made. In cases falling under sub-rule (2), a receipt shall be given by the recipient of the benefit in Form 'F' to the employer after receiving the payment in the presence of Competent Authority or his nominee who shall countersign it.

(4) The medical bonus shall be paid along with the second instalment of the maternity benefit.

(5) The payment under section 7 shall be made within two months of the date of death of the woman entitled to receive the payment.

(6) The wages due under section 9 shall be paid immediately after production of the certificate.

(7) The wages due under section 10 shall be paid within a week of the beginning of the period of leave referred to in that section on the production of a Certificate in Form 'C' from the medical officer of a Civil Hospital or of a dispensary set up by the Government or from a Registered Medical Practitioner.

Section 11

7. Break for nursing child.—Each of the two breaks mentioned in section 11 shall be of 20 minutes duration:

Provided that in case the creche or place where children are left by woman while on duty is not in the vicinity of the place of work a period to 15 minutes more may be allowed for the purpose of journey to and from creche or the place.

Section 15

8. Restriction and conditions governing the working of the Competent Authority and Inspectors under the Act.—(1) The Competent Authority shall be responsible for the due administration of these rules.

(2) Every Inspector shall discharge his duties within the area assigned to him by the Government, and shall act under the supervision and control of the Competent Authority.

(3) No Inspector shall physically examine or question any woman worker in respect of her pregnancy. In case of any doubt in this respect, he may immediately refer the case to a female registered medical practitioner for examination and report and any fee payable for such an examination shall be paid by the employer of the woman worker.

(4) The Inspector shall issue written instructions for ensuring the compliance of all or any of the provision contained in the Act and for the production of the records in his office within 24 hours of the conduct of the inspection in case where the records are not made available at the time of inspection for the reasons beyond the control of the management.

Sections 12
and 28 (2)
(g)

9. Gross misconduct.—The following acts shall constitute gross misconduct for the purposes of section 12, namely:—

- (a) Wilful destruction of goods or property of the employer of value exceeding Rs. 100. However, this shall not include the cost of defective production due to lack of skill.
- (b) The nefarious immoral activities established to the satisfaction of the Competent Authority.
- (c) Serious crime such as theft, fraud or dishonesty resulting in an ultimate conviction in a court of law.

Section 12
(2)(b)

10. Appeal under section 12.—(1) An appeal under clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 12 shall be preferred to the Competent Authority in Form 'G'.

(2) The appeal may be made in writing and either handed over personally or sent under a registered cover to the Competent Authority.

(3) When an appeal is received, the Competent Authority shall furnish a copy of the memorandum of appeal to the employer, call for his reply thereto and ask him to produce documents connected with the issue of appeal by a fixed date. On considering the facts presented to him and ascertained by him the Competent Authority shall give his decision. In case the employer fails to submit his reply or produce the required documents within the specified period, the Competent Authority may give his decision ex parte.

Section (17)
(1) and (28)
(2)(J)

11. Complaint under section 17.—(1) A complaint under sub-section (1) of section 17 shall be made in writing in Form 'H' or Form 'I', as the case may be.

(2) When a complaint referred to in section 17 is received by an Inspector he shall examine the relevant records maintained by the employer in this behalf, examine any person employer in the establishment and take down necessary statement for the purpose of the enquiry and if he is satisfied that the maternity benefit or the amount has been improperly withheld, he shall direct the employer to make the payment to the woman or to the person claiming the payment under section 7, as the case may be, immediately or within a specified period.

Section 17
and 28(2)(i)

12. Appeal under section 17.—(1) An appeal against the decision of the Inspector under sub-section (2) of section 17 shall lie to the Competent Authority.

(2) The aggrieved person shall prefer an appeal in writing to the Competent Authority in Form 'J' and file other supporting documents.

(3) When an appeal is received, the Competent Authority shall call upon the Inspector to produce before him, before a fixed date, a copy of his decision and other documents concerning his decision. The Competent Authority shall, if necessary, also record the statements of the aggrieved person and of the Inspector and seek clarification, if any, is required.

(4) Taking into account the documents, the evidence produced before him and facts presented to him or ascertained by him, the Competent Authority shall give his decision.

Section 28
(2)(k)

13. Supply of forms.—The employer shall supply to every woman employed by him at her request free of cost copies of Forms 'B', 'C', 'D', 'E', 'F', 'G', 'H', and 'I'.

14. Records.—Records kept under the provisions of the Act and these rules shall be preserved for a period of two years from the date of their preparation.

Section 20

15. Abstract.—The abstract of the provisions of the Act and these rules required to be exhibited under section 19 shall be in Form 'K' and shall be exhibited in such manner as the Competent Authority may required.

16. Annual Return.—(1) The employer of every establishment shall on or before the 21st day of January in each year submit to the Competent Authority a return in each of the Forms 'L', 'M', 'N' and 'O' giving information as the particulars specified in respect of the preceding year.

(2) If the employer of an establishment to which the Act applies sells, abandons or discontinues the working of the establishment, he shall, within one month of the date of sale or abandonment or four months of the date of discontinuance as the case may be, submit to the Competent Authority a further return in each of the said Forms, in respect of the period between the end of the preceding year and the date of sale, abandonment or discontinuance.

FORM 'K'
(See rule 15)

(Abstract of the Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 and the rules made thereunder)

1. No employer shall knowingly employ a woman during the six weeks immediately following the day of her delivery or miscarriage and no woman shall work in any establishment during the said period.

2. No pregnant woman shall, on a request being made by her in this behalf be required by the employer to do during the period of one month immediately preceding the period of six weeks before the date of her expected delivery and also for any period during this period of six weeks for which she does not avail of leave of absence, any standing work which is of an arduous nature or which involves long hours of standing or which in any way is likely to interfere with her pregnancy or the normal development of the foetus, or is likely to cause her miscarriage or otherwise to adversely effect her health.

3. (1) Subject to the provisions of the Act, every woman who has actually worked in an establishment of the employer from whom she claims maternity benefit for a period not less than one hundred and sixty days, including the days during which she was laid off, shall be entitled to and her employer shall be liable for, the payment of maternity benefit at the rate of her average daily wages, or one rupee a day, whichever is higher, for the period of her actual absence not exceeding six weeks immediately preceding and including the day of her delivery and for the six weeks immediately following that day:

Provided that the qualifying period of one hundred and sixty days aforesaid shall not apply to a woman who has immigrated into the State of Himachal Pradesh and was pregnant at the time of immigration:

Provided further that where a woman dies during the period for which maternity benefit is payable to her, the benefit shall be payable only for the days upto and including the day of her death. However, where the woman having been delivered of a child dies during her delivery or during the period of six weeks immediately following the date of her delivery or during leaving behind in either case the child, the employer shall be liable for the payment of maternity benefit for the entire period of six weeks immediately following the day of her delivery but if the child also dies during the said period then, for the days upto and including the day of the death of the child.

(2) The amount of maternity benefit for the period preceding the date of her expected delivery shall be paid in advance by the employer to the woman on production or a certificate in Form 'B' stating that she is pregnant and is expected to be delivered of a child within six weeks of the date of production of the certificate, and the amount due for the subsequent period shall be paid by the employer to the woman within forty-eight hours of production of the certificate in Form 'C' or Form 'E' stating that she has been delivered of a child or production of a certificated extract from a Birth Register maintained under the provisions of any law for the time being in force.

4. (1) Any woman employed in an establishment and entitled to maternity benefit under the provisions of this Act, may give notice in writing in Form 'B' to her employer stating that her maternity benefit and any other amount to which she may be entitled under this Act may be paid to her or to such person as she may nominate in the notice and that she will not work in any establishment during the period for which she receives maternity benefit.

(2) In the case of a woman who is pregnant, such notice shall state the date from which she will be absent from work not being a date earlier than six weeks from the date of her expected delivery.

(3) Any woman who has not given the notice when she was pregnant may give such notice as soon as possible after the delivery.

(4) On receipt of the notice, the employer shall permit such woman to absent herself from the establishment until the expiry of six weeks after the day of her delivery.

(5) (1) Every woman entitled to maternity benefit under the Act shall also be entitled to receive from her employer a medical bonus of twenty-five rupees, if no prenatal confinement and post-natal care is provided for by the employer free of charge. The medical bonus shall be paid along with the second instalment of the maternity benefit.

(2) In case of miscarriage, a woman shall on production of a certificate in Form 'C' or Form 'B' be entitled to leave with wages at the maternity benefit for a period of six weeks immediately following the day of her miscarriage. The wages shall be paid within 48 hours of production of the certificate in Form 'C' or Form 'B'.

(3) A woman suffering from illness arising out of pregnancy, delivery, premature birth of child or miscarriage shall on production of a certificate in Form 'C' be entitled in addition to the period of absence allowed to her on account of maternity or miscarriage, as the case may be, to leave with wages at the rate of maternity benefit for a maximum period of one month. The wages for the leave period shall be paid within 48 hours of the expiry of the period.

6. Every woman delivered of a child who returns to duty after such delivery shall in addition to the interval for rest allowed to her be allowed in the course of her daily work two breaks of 15 minutes duration for nursing the child until the child attains the age of fifteen months. An extra sufficient period, depending upon the distance to be covered shall be allowed for the purpose of the journey to and from the creche or the place where the children are left by women while on duty provided that such extra period shall not be less than 5 minutes and more than 15 minutes duration.

7. (1) When a woman absents herself from work in accordance with the provisions of the Act, it shall be unlawful for her employer to discharge or dismiss her during or on account of such absence or to give notice of discharge or dismissal on such a day that the notice will expire during such absence, or to vary to her disadvantage any of the conditions of her service.

(2) (a) The discharge or dismissal of a woman at any time during the pregnancy, if the woman but for such discharge or dismissal would have been entitled to maternity benefit or medical bonus shall not have the effect of depriving her of the maternity benefit or medical bonus shall not have the medical bonus:

Provided that where the dismissal is for one or more of the following acts, the employer may, by order in writing communicated to the woman deprive her of the maternity benefit or medical bonus or both:—

- (i) wilful destruction of employer's goods or property;
- (ii) assaulting any superior or co-employee at the place of work;
- (iii) criminal offence involving moral turpitude resulting in conviction in a court of law;
- (iv) theft, fraud, or dishonesty in connection with the employer's business or property; and
- (v) wilful non-observance of safety measures or rules on the subject or wilful interference with safety devices or with fire-fighting equipment.

8. If a woman works in any establishment after she has been permitted by her employer to absent under the provisions of the Act, she shall forfeit her claim to the maternity benefit for such period.

(9) (1) Any woman claiming that maternity benefit or any other amount to which she is entitled under the Act and any person claiming that payment due has been improperly withheld may make a complaint to the inspector in writing in Form 'H' or 'I' as the case may be.

(2) The Inspector may, of his own motion or on receipt of a complaint in Form 'H' or 'I' make an enquiry or cause an enquiry to be made and if satisfied that payment has been wrongfully withheld, may direct the payment to be made in accordance with his order.

(3) Any persons aggrieved by the decision of the Inspector may within thirty days from the date of which decision is communicated to such person, appeal to the Competent Authority.

(4) The decision of the Competent Authority where an appeal has been preferred shall be final.

10. (a) The employer shall supply to every woman employed by him at her request free of cost copies of Forms 'B', 'C', 'D', 'E', 'F', 'G', 'H' and 'I'.

(b) The failure to submit a notice, appeal or complaint in the prescribed form will not affect the right of a woman entitled to receive maternity benefit or any other amount due under the Act. Where a notice, appeal or complaint has been received in a form other than the prescribed form the authority concerned shall within fifteen days of the receipt of such notice, appeal or complaint require the woman to submit the notice, appeal or complaint as the case may be, in the prescribed form.

11. (a) (1) The employer of every establishment in which women are employed shall prepare and maintain a muster roll in Form 'A' and shall enter therein particulars of all women workers in the establishment.

(2) All entries in the muster roll shall be made in ink and maintained up-to-date and it shall always be available for inspection by the Inspector during the working hours.

(b) The employer of every establishment shall on or before the 21st January in each year submit to the Competent Authority a return in each of the Forms 'M', 'L', 'N', and 'O' giving information as to be particulars specified in respect of the preceding year.
